This a chalice of audacious hope.

I Lift My Voice

by Andrea Ramsey

When I lift my voice, let it be in song,
A defiant note in the face of wrong,
I won't stand alone, we'll stand side by side,
'cause we know that love is always justified.
When they try to divide us, it will only unite us.
I lift my voice.

When I lift my voice, let it be for good,
Let me care as much as I know I should,
I won't stand alone, we'll stand side by side,
'cause we know that love is always justified.
When they try to divide us, it will only unite us.
I lift my voice.

Hold On
(Keep Your Eyes on the Prize)

African American Spiritual
Refrain credited to Alice Wine, 1950's

Verse 1

Oh, the one thing we did right was the day we started to fight.

Keep your eyes on the prize. Hold on!

Got my hand on the freedom plow, wouldn't take nothin' for my journey now.

Keep your eyes on the prize. Hold on!

REFRAIN (sing twice):

Hold on! Hold on!

Keep your eyes on the prize.

Hold on!

Verse 2

Only chains that we can stand, are the chains of hand in hand.

Keep your eyes on the prize. Hold on!

We're gonna board that big Greyhound, carryin' love from town to town.

Keep your eyes on the prize. Hold on! (REFRAIN)

Verse 3

Many good souls have fought and died, so we could sing here side by side.

Keep your eyes on the prize. Hold on!

When united it is clear, we don't have to live in fear.

Keep your eyes on the prize. Hold on! (REFRAIN)
